

Today's Buyer's Guide for tomorrow's greener world

Welcome to the Novus Buyer's Guide.

THE WHO'S WHO OF GREEN TECHNOLOGY COMPANIES.

A unique buyer's guide for a world where companies of all sizes show their efforts to push environmental standards.

Created to be the most comprehensive, easy-to-use resource of its kind, the Novus BUYER'S GUIDE links ecologically attuned companies to customers, prospects and suppliers around the globe.

The Novus Buyer's Guide utilizes the full capabilities of the web to provide its worldwide users with an unprecedented range of highly intuitive features that quickly delivers a world of information.

And it provides advertisers with highly effective and efficient means to make a deep connection with these discriminating, hard-to-reach audiences - utilizing a palette of icons to identify companies' green credentials - all done in an optimal environment for making a strong and lasting impression.

Every page provides companies with powerful resources and tools to tell their story and stand out from the competition. To provide comprehensive information that quickly connects extraordinary companies with qualified suppliers and customers. Green businesses are blooming, and the Novus Buyer's Guide takes the green agenda to a new level.

The successful companies of tomorrow are listed in the Novus Buyer's Guide. Today.

Finding What You Want. Or Being Found. It's never been easier. Any day. Anywhere in the world.

Novus Buyer's Guide features the most - and most intuitive - ways to connect technologies, products and resources with customers and supplier. Its clean, compact design is at once powerful and highly efficient. Its span is global. The results are amazing.

Search Made Simple

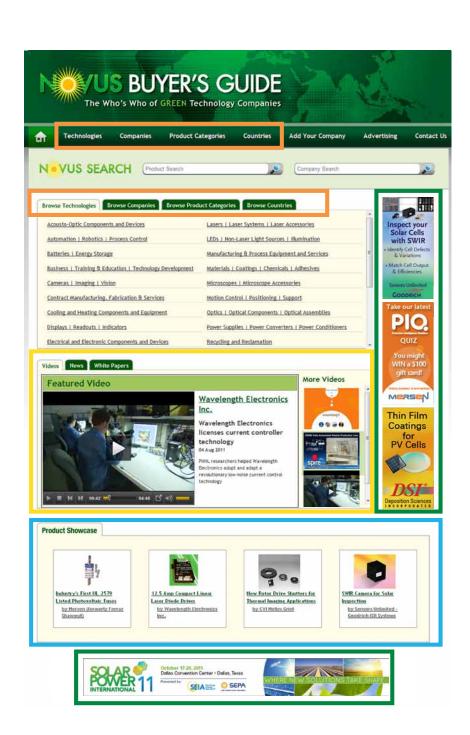

Visitors to Novus Buyer's Guide will find a wide range of options to locate exactly what they need. On every page they can search for products or technology by name, company or country. Quickly. Easily. Simply.

Companies with Premium or Deluxe listings will see their products or company logos featured in rotation on every page of search results. Every day. Everywhere in the world.

All of which increase your chances of being found.

Product Showcase

Companies with Premium and Deluxe listings have their products highlighted every day on their exclusive eStorefront, as well as the Novus Buyer's Guide home page and the Technologies and Product Categories pages.

Homepage

Valuable, informative, timely and up-to-date information, presented in three distinct forms.

Video

Demonstrates your company's new products and technology 24/7 on the home page as well as your eStorefront. Available as part of a Premium listings package.

News

Your articles and releases highlight your company's latest advancements and industry developments. Available as part of the Premium or Deluxe listing packages.

White Papers

A dynamic repository of your white papers provides readers with a rich resource of knowledge facilitating industry dialogue. Available as part of the Premium or Deluxe listing packages.

Advertising

A limited number of high-impact positions are available on every page (except eStorefronts). Optimal positioning and lack of clutter translate to a unique blend of effectiveness and efficiency: the format that visitors prefer and the results you seek.

Kindly see our Pricing Schedule for complete details on sizes and rates.

eStorefront

Successful companies find innovative and effective ways to promote their products and services. By fully utilizing the wide array of available resources of an eStorefront, your company can present a comprehensive array of information to potential clients and partners while you promote your green credentials to a receptive global audience.

An eStorefront in the Novus Buyer's Guide is an innovative and effective way to promote your company. In short, it means more business for your business.

Products

Showcase all of your company's products. Displaying information is easy and an effective way to pre-sell prospects.

Videos

Whether describing a product or technology, a video presentation from your company literally speaks volumes about your business - and helps to grow it. Put your message in your words to make an impact on your prospects and competition alike.

Create a convenient, highly accessible library of your valuable white papers.

White Papers

Expand the reach of your news releases and stories.

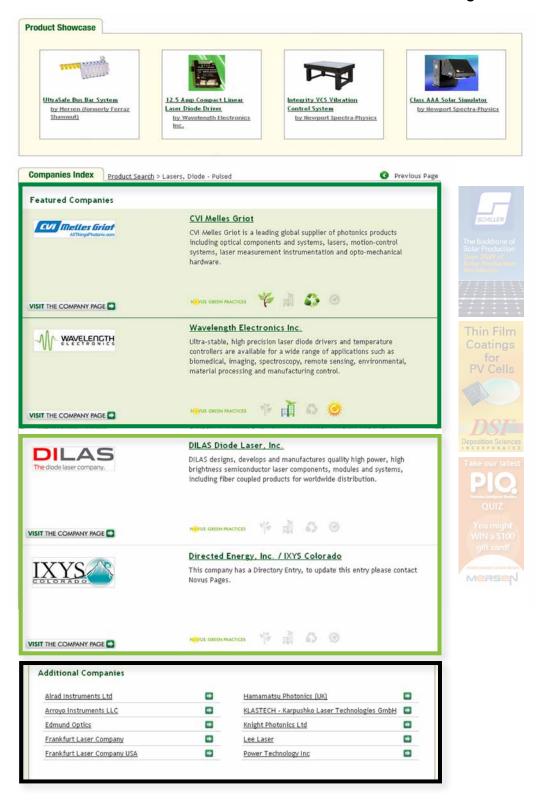

News

Promote Your Company to the World. With a World of Options.

The Novus Buyer's Guide offers three ways to list your company using a powerful range of sales and marketing tools. All will connect you with buyers around the globe, looking to purchase from eco-friendly companies.

Stand out from the crowd with our Premium and Deluxe listings!

PREMIUM LEVEL

There is no better way to promote your company to the world of prospects than with our Premium Listing. Enjoy powerful resources and advantages including our Product Showcases; featured videos and white papers; and much more. Your products or your company logo appear in rotation on every search page.

See the grid below or your Novus Buyer's Guide representative for full details.

DELUXE LEVEL

This option provides many of the advantages of the Premium level including featured products, white papers and much more. Your products or your company logo will appear in rotation on every search page.

The Novus Media Green Practices Awards: The recognition is earned. The benefits are priceless.

Novus Media Today recognizes that green technology is a critical concept that is literally shaping our world. As such, the company is completely committed to and supports the widespread use of ecologically-sensitive technologies, products and practices.

Novus Media Today is proud to be a leader in recognizing forward-looking organizations that share a commitment to our environment. We embrace this movement by bestowing our NOVUS MEDIA GREEN PRACTICES AWARDS to companies achieving certain performance criteria in four important areas:

Green Products - For companies that manufacture/distribute eco-friendly products; or their products are consistently used in eco-friendly applications.

Green Manufacturing - For companies with eco-friendly production facilities/manufacturing processes.

Recycling - For companies that recycle materials and dispose of hazardous/toxic wastes in an eco-friendly manner.

Energy Efficient - For companies that are highly energy efficient.

We urge you to aspire to these awards and proudly display them in our listings as, increasingly, purchasers look to buy from ecologically responsible organizations.

A unique buyer's guide where companies promote their efforts to make a greener world.

Created to be the most comprehensive, easy-to-use resource of its kind, the Novus Buyer's Guide links customers, prospects and suppliers around the globe. Utilizing the full capabilities of the web, the Novus Buyer's Guide provides an unprecedented range of highly intuitive features that quickly delivers a world of information.

The Novus Buyer's Guide provides advertisers with:

- Highly effective and efficient means to connect with discriminating, hard-to-reach audiences.
- Enhanced listings that provide powerful promotional resources and tools that deliver comprehensive information and allow companies to stand out from their competition.
- A palette of icons to clearly demonstrate a company's green credentials.
- Two advertising options in the formats that our readers prefer and to which they respond.

a. Vertical Banner

A maximum of three ads per page, displayed in rotation on the right margin (eStorefronts carry no advertising). Measuring 120x240, they can accommodate static and rich media.

b. Leaderboard

One per page (except eStorefronts), these units dominate the page near the bottom, adjacent to highly desirable content. Outstanding for branding and more complex messaging, they are available in static and rich media formats.

> Leaderboard (728x90)
